

Workshop on the Politics of Human Rights For Special Sessions on Rawls's *Law of Peoples

Wednesday, August 13, 2 - 5 pm — chair: Rex Martin

Chris Brown, London School of Economics, UK title: Decent Peoples, Outlaw States, Burdened Societies: Conceptual Categories in The Law of Peoples

Kok-Chor Tan, Univ. of Pennsylvania, USA title: Nationalism and Cosmopolitanism in
The Law of Peoples

Jim Nickel, Arizona State University College of Law, USA title: Human Rights and the Limits of Toleration in Rawls's Law of Peoples

David Reidy, Univ. of Tennessee, USA title: Justice and the Global Economy in Rawls's
The Law of Peoples

Panel: all eight papergivers

Thursday, August 14, 2 - 5 pm — chair: David Reidy

Alistair Macleod, Queen's University, Canada title: Rawls on Human Rights Justification and Selective Enforcement

Wilfried Hinsch, University of Saarland, Germany title: Human Rights and Duties of Assistance (co-author: Markus Stepanians, Germany)

Alyssa Bernstein, Ohio University, USA title: Democratization as a Humanitarian Aim of War:
Just War Theory and the Law of Peoples

Rex Martin, University of Kansas, USA title: Dimensions of International Distributive Economic Justice in Rawls's Law of Peoples

Panel: all eight papergivers + Philip Pettit (ANU, Australia and Princeton, USA)